On Sunday, October 8, 2023 deputies were dispatched to Kenyon College on a unresponsive male. Upon arriving at the college, Kenyon College Campus Safety advised that the kid was awake, but refusing to comply and give his information. The individual was eventually transported to the Knox Community Hospital where he was issued a citation for underage consumption of an alcoholic beverage and was warned on his conduct at the hospital. Deputies received another call at the hospital stating that the individual was being disorderly and causing a disturbance. The individual was placed under arrest for disorderly conduct in a medical facility and transported to the Knox County Jail.
