On April 23, 2024 deputies were dispatched to a residence on Beckholt Rd. in Mount Vernon Ohio on a disturbance. When deputies arrived on scene residents advised a very intoxicated male left the house and was most likely in the woods. Due to the weather beginning to get colder and the males intoxicated state deputies searched for the male for multiple hours until they received a call from the complainant again saying the male was there. Deputies arrived on scene and learned a domestic violence incident had just taken place. An investigation was conducted and two males were arrested and transported to the Knox County Jail, charged with domestic violence.
