On November 22nd, 2025 Deputies Haunn, Derrick and I responded to 7339 Granville Rd. Mount Vernon, OH to make contact with Michael Page. Michael answered the door and was informed of his outstanding warrant. Michael was arrested for Failure to Appear, placed in handcuffs (gapped and double locked) and transported to the Knox County Jail. On the way to the jail I had to stop due to hitting a deer. I checked on Micheal who advised he hit his face on the cage due to the abrupt braking in an attempt to avoid the deer. I asked Micheal if he wanted a medic to check him out or if he wanted to go to KHC, he declined and stated he was okay. Micheal showed no signs of an apparent injury. Micheal was released to jail staff without incident. Deputy A. Miller, 4263

On November 22nd, 2025 Deputy Haunn, Derrick and I worked a warrant on Granville Rd. The suspect Michael Page was arrested on the outstanding warrant and I was transporting him to the Knox County Jail. At approximately 1605 I was traveling North on Granville Rd. South of Railroad St. when a deer entered the roadway from the West. I attempted to slow down to avoid the deer and struck the deer with the right front corner of my cruiser. I stopped the vehicle and checked on Michael so advised he hit his face on the cage but was okay and declined medics. The cruiser was drivable. Sgt. Ramsier was contacted regarding the incident and advised to contact the Ohio State Highway Patrol for a crash report. Michael was transported to the jail and released to Jail staff. OSP came to the Knox County Sheriff's office to complete the crash report. Deputy A. Miller, 4263
