On Sunday December 21, 2025, I was sitting at Workman Cemetery when a vehicle passed by going south at what appeared to be a high rate of speed. I activated my Stalker Dual DSR Radar Unit and tracked the vehicle 70, 70, 70, 70, and [70], and I locked the radar at 70 MPH in a 55 MPH zone. Therefore, I activated my overhead emergency lights on my marked Knox County Sheriff Office patrol car and caught up to the vehicle to initiate a traffic stop. I approached the vehicle on the driver side and spoke with the driver who identified himself as Jonathan Lloyd Jones. When asked, Jonathan provided me with his Ohio operator's license, vehicle registration, and proof of financial responsibility. I asked Jonathan why he was driving so fast and he said, "I wasn't paying attention and was heading to work," admitting he was speeding
