On April 23, 2026 a complainant called to report that she was the victim of a domestic violence incident the night prior. She advised that at the time of the domestic violence incident she was advised to leave the residence for her own safety and did not take any of her property, including her car. Deputies responded to the address and attempted contact with the property owner and the suspect from the night prior. The complainant whom was an established resident, responded to the address and advised that we had permission to enter. She advised that she did not have a key but advised that she was willing to break glass on her home, so that we could gain entry and verify it was safe for her to get car keys and some other small essential belongings. After she broke glass on the front of her residence, the property owner came to the door and advised that the male from the night prior was in the home.
